

Art in Bloom

Part art, part home décor, these one-of-a-kind handmade vases bring colorful cheer to any room

Flowers courtesy of J. Kinney, Florist, 1835 Monroe St., Madison; (608) 255-7500 or jkinneyflorist.com.

Accent any room with Robert Held's blue abstract vase. $110, Pucci's Gallery & Custom Framing, 555 S. Midvale Blvd., Madison; (608) 233-1335 or puccis.com

Make a colorful statement in a wide California poppy vase by artist Robert Held. $540, Milward Farrell Fine Art, 2701 Monroe St., Madison; (608) 238-6501 or milwardfarrellfineart.com

An eye-catching vase by Boar Glass artists Bengt Hokanson and Trefny Dix lets long stems become a part of the art. $134, Milward Farrell Fine Art, 2701 Monroe St., Madison; (608) 238-6501 or milwardfarrellfineart.com

Local artisan Nathan Gieseke's cool blue creation is perfect for large bouquets fresh from the garden. $142, Hatch Art House, 1248 Williamson St., Madison; (608) 237-2775 or hatcharthouse.com

A brightly hued vase by Nathan Gieseke comes complete with its own buds: delicate glass flowers that never need replacing. $197, Hatch Art House, 1248 Williamson St., Madison; (608) 237-2775 or hatcharthouse.com

Crafty in more ways than one, Richard Jones of Studio Paran's green circular vase is specially designed to hold single stems in place. $120, Madison Museum of Contemporary Art Museum Store, 227 State St., Madison; (608) 257-0158 or mmoca.org/shopmmoca

This tall piece by Richard Jones of Studio Paran makes for an elegant home accent. $200, Madison Museum of Contemporary Art Museum Store, 227 State St., Madison; (608) 257-0158 or mmoca.org/shopmmoca