Play Around Town in Wisconsin Dells

A summertime hotspot comes alive during winter evenings

It's no secret that by day Wisconsin Dells is a year-round mecca for water park enthusiasts and vacationers. But once the sun sets, the town also boasts a plethora of ways to keep yourself busy into the wee hours.

If you get started around dinner, you'll be just in time to indulge in the kind of entertainment the Dells is loved for. If kids are in the picture, check with area resorts for evening entertainment options that range from illusionist shows to musical performances and more. If it's adults-only fun you crave, start at one of the area piano bars for a blend of dining and entertainment that serves as the perfect beginning to your evening—then hit the strip.

Like a mini Las Vegas, the main drag—Broadway Street—lights up in the evening hours with signs inviting you to take part in any range of activities for whatever fits your mood or style. Situated in the heart of downtown, this thoroughfare offers 11 different bars and clubs within a five block radius. Step into a club and boogie the night away, hang out at a bar and tap your toes to live music or get sporty and spend the night at a bowling lane. Another nearby street—Wisconsin Dells Parkway—is also home to a string of nighttime hotspots, including Caribbean-style dance clubs that capture a year-round love of beach life.

Stay overnight to take advantage of off-season rates (and even a little daytime waterpark fun) and you'll find that night-life in the Dells offers a welcome way to spice up any winter weekend.
